LE NOTIZIE DI TREVOR

Where does the time go? A quarter of the year has simply flown by – but we can all take great comfort in the fact that this term has been another productive, focused and energetic one at BSPS!

SCHOOL COUNCIL

On Tuesday night our new council met for the first time. We welcomed our new members Jean-Pierre Masclef, Dan Ziffer and Madeleine Aikenhead, alongside our existing members Jane Scammell, James Henry, Petra Stock, Ivana D'Aprano, Marg Weymouth and myself.

The council also elected a new member under the community category. John Hajek, Professor of Italian Studies at The University of Melbourne, will join the council and head up our newly formed Bilingual Sub-committee.

We also appointed new office bearing roles, with James elected as President, Madeleine as Vice President and Dan as Treasurer. The sub-committee conveners for 2019 are as follows:

- Policy Committee – Marg Weymouth
- OSHC Committee – Petra Stock
- Building and Grounds Committee – James Henry
- Community and Fundraising Committee – Jean-Pierre Masclef
- Bilingual Committee – John Hajek

Our council is a productive, trusting and highly active professional learning community in our school and I look forward to working with you all over 2019 and beyond.

SCHOOL VALUES AND SCHOOL WIDE POSITIVE BEHAVIOURS

Our goal this term was to create an outstanding learning environment in each learning area across the school. As you walk around the school you'll certainly see evidence of how we have achieved that goal. I had a prospective parent mention to me last week that she couldn't believe how calm and orderly the learning areas were and the positive interactions between students and staff as we walked around. While it was a proud moment for me, it was also an acknowledgement of the hard work our students and staff have put into establishing this environment. This morning, Marg and I did a walk-through of the learning areas and noted the ways in which our school values and positive behaviours expectations were displayed. This is crucial in ensuring a consistent message is being delivered to all students at BSPS.

STEM UPDATE

We are very pleased to finally announce we have appointed someone to the STEM role, with Eileen Archer joining our school community from the beginning of next term. Eileen is well known to our school and has worked with us casually for a number of years. Please join me in welcoming her to our school.

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Our commitment to whole school improvement continues and our staff have been highly engaged in professional learning opportunities in and outside of BSPS. We had a number of staff participate in a GROWTH Coaching session, with staff joining us from Glenroy Central PS and Brunswick North West PS. We came away from the sessions with an increased insight about how we can strengthen our classroom observation process.

Next term our internal professional learning will be focused on writing. Led by Maree and our Literacy team we are going to dig deep into our writing practices at BSPS and look at how we can ensure success for all students in writing.

Please remember that term two resumes on Wednesday 24 April..

Have a safe, happy and relaxing break,

Trevor.

A book club coming to Brunswick South Primary School!
The Italian Cultural Institute is offering to run a Book club at Brunswick South Primary School for parents and carers interested in sharing a stimulating fiction experience around Italian fiction.

Italian Cultural Institute Book Club for 2019
Each year American, Australian and British publishers choose just a handful of Italian novels for translation. The majority of those novels are written by men. This year the Italian Cultural Institute has chosen to make Italian women writers the theme of the 2019 bookclub.

Many people, whether they are Italian enthusiasts or not, will have heard of Elena Ferrante. But have you heard of Francesca Melandri, Francesca Marciano, Michela Murgia or Milena Agus?

Book Club Facilitator
Kylie Doust, Italian studies specialist and ex-literary agent for many of Italy's most successful authors, will guide your discussions at the book club sessions, helping you to unravel the themes of contemporary, Italian fiction written by women. Kylie works as an Italian Language Assistant in 5/6 this year.

The books.
If you accept to join the book club, be aware that you are going to be taken on an adventure. From Northern Italy, through Naples and Sardinia and Puglia.
Finding the books may not always be straightforward (which is unfortunately part and parcel of being a female, Italian author) but at the very least, they are all available in ebook version or for borrowing from the Italian Institute's wonderful library.

The Language
The book club will be held in English but the books can be read in English or in the original Italian, depending on your personal preference.

Expressions of Interest
At this stage, we are taking expressions of interest with a minimum of 5 members needed to run. Please send an email to the office saying you are interested and Kylie will touch base with you.
